IFE 2025 Attendees Titles

"When people come to the show, they often look for basic fasteners. What we've noticed, though, is that many reps stop by and say, 'Oh, you do well fasteners? That's something we've had trouble sourcing.' We also get a lot of people with niche needs who approach us at the show. But the real results come after the event, when we start receiving quotes and securing business. It's great to hear people say, 'We didn't know you could supply that—good thing we came to the show!'"

— Dianna Novak, Buckeye Fasteners Company
